Chapter 1: the formation of the psychological entity
1981

It was a warm spring morning on March 18, 1981. The skies were blue, the kids were outside, and… the lab was splitting atoms… too?
Suddenly a problem was arising. The ZANY and SENTIENT atoms in that one putty thats supposed to calm people were NOT spilt. Suddenly… the entity formed. It looked like a… animal you would see in spring. But then, it said “Hello, Scientists!”. The thing introduced itself. “I am Kyle! Whats your name?” i guess i have to name him like that for the ENTIRE STORY! One scientist hesitated. The other one said his name “i am Dr. Pinpipe, and im glad to see.. You.” one thing Pinpipe didnt notice is that Kyle would have to psychologically destroy him by using zany antics. In the “ITS ALIVE” sensory and therapy room, Pinpipe tried to see whats on its mind. “So, whats on your mind, Kyle?” Pinpipe said. Kyle didnt hesitate, it went straight to zany antics. “A sandwich.” Kyle said. Surprisingly, there was a literal sandwich on its head. Then, Pinpipe said “No, No! Not the sandwich. I mean, what are you thinking abo- Kyle?” Pinpipe realized that Kyle was saying alot of stuff. “...now heres how i saw things before i existed. I was seeing nothing, but all of a sudden, i saw 2 atoms collide, and then i started existing.” Kyle explained. Pinpipe only got that part, but he didnt hear the rest. The suspense was so much that it already destroyed his mental health. “WHAT WAS NEXT? WHAT! WAS! NEEEEEEXT!?!?!?!??!?!” Pinpipe cried, he breaks to the floor. “My work here is done!” Kyle said. Springing out of the lab into the world.
Chapter 2 - Kids Forever!
There were 3 kids who knew what was happening through the laboratory's cameras. The first kid, Milly, said "We have to stop that guy before he makes everyone go crazy." the second kid, Willy, said "Yes. hes a danger and should be treated as such"

The third, Lilly said "nope. He looks nice! Im joking. Of course he has to be put in a time capsule." then, "good idea, lily! Time capsule + Being set for 2013 = VICTORY!", Wiliy said. A mysterious marionette came out of nowhere "2013 has a little thing called memes!", the marionette said. It was actually puppetered by Kyle. "whats wrong kids?", Kyle said. All of the kids ran and screamed.
Chapter 3 (end of 1981 era) - Battle of the…. Battles.

The 3 kids and Kyle were ready to fight. Milly and Lilly stood steady, with Willy holding the time capsule. Kyle had boxing gloves on, emoting like a boxing player. Then, the fight started. Kyle went bouncing around the room, talking about some guy that didn't exist yet. "Hey! You know whats funny? Chapters 1-3 are based in 1981, which is right now, and what im doing is being wrote by some kid named Derek Darrah, whos writing this in 2026!", Kyle screamed as the kids tried to grab it. Willy got it and shoved it inside of the capsule. Ticking for 31 years.
Chapter 4 - How Would YOU Like The Internet?

The timer was seconds away from ticking up. "9… 8… 7… 6… 5… 4… 3… 2… 1… Ok, what'd i miss?"
2013
Its now March 18, 2013. But there wasnt kids outside. "What happened? Am i in 2020? HAS THE PANDEMIC STARTED? Oh wait! No! Its 2013! This is when the internet happened! I should shove some of my zany antics…. Online!” Kyle said as he jumped to the computer store.

Chapter 5 - 1 ACMEComputer, please!

He had entered the store, and springed to an employee. “Hey…… NO ANIMALS ALLOWED- wait whaaa

(rightisthe3rdsecond has disconnected)
Then, after seeing that, the 3 NEW kids decided that kyle is as threatening as their parents said it was. “We cant let that happen!” Nilly said. “nope , zenada! Nuh-uh!” Yilly said. “Maybe ill chat to him online! Just kidding. We gotta get rid of him.”, said Silly. They teamed up the same way their parents did in 1981.
Chapter 7 - BATTLE AGAIN!!! (end of 2013 era?)

This time, Nilly, Yilly, and Silly all had the time capsule, and Kyle knows how to dodge a attack this time. When the battle started, Kyle was fast, but in the middle of the match, he knocked over a random piece of pink goop. It started moving across the floor without psychological entity or human intervention, but they didnt care. They fighted and fighted untill Nilly threw the capsule at Kyle since that she knew triangulation. He got trapped and was set for 2025.
Chapter 8 - Its Not Over. (post-2013 chapter)

There was still a problem. The goop suddenly seeped inside of the capsule, malfunctioning the countdown to 2026. Kyle was still sleeping, sleeping like a baby, but the goop started to…. Become….. Humanoid?
Chapter 9 - I’ll always be your friend.

The countdown ended, and both the thingy and Kyle were freed. But Kyle noticed that thing. he flashed back.
Back in 2013…
“but in the middle of the match, he knocked over a random piece of pink goop. It started moving across the floor without psychological entity or human intervention, but they didnt care. They fighted and fighted untill Nilly threw the capsule at Kyle since that she knew triangulation.”
Back to the present…

Kyle had realized that it has a new friend. It called it Ion. Ion was just getting off the ground, and… realized. “Whoa! You must be…… Kyle, right? The one that knocked me over?”, Ion said, Kyle then said “yep.”, but Kyle sensed that Nilly had changed her name to “Nulsan”, Willy to “Wiliam”, and Silly to “Sill”. They moved to Burbank in 2024 in preparation for Kyle’s alleged arrival. So, a little road trip started from Arch, California to Burbank, California.

Chapter 10 - ROAD TRIP!

Both Ion and Kyle drove to Burbank on a…. Donkey. But they arrived. Apparently Sill now worked as a technician on the Disney lot, but Ion went to zany antics. “Hey, Sill!”, Ion said. “What?”, Sill asked. “Pick a card, any card!”, Ion said. Sill picked the 4th, but it was a jester. Sill ran and screamed just like her parents in 1981. Ion ran to the Warner Bros. lot to find William. To avoid copyright infringement, i will not do a gag on the Animaniacs. Ion then saw Wiliam, helping out on making a new set in stage 42. Ion tried to annoy Willam. “Willy, willy, willy, willy, willy, willy, will-”, Ion said. “STOOOOOOOOOOOOOOP!”, William screamed. His hair ruffled. Ion ran to Paramount, where Nulsan was. “Hey, Null!”, Ion said. “What?”, Nulsan said. Ion then did funny faces that pushed Nulsan to crumbling on the floor. After that, Kyle and Ion ran out out burbank into a cemetery. The 3 adults agreed that they had to smoosh Ion since that Kyle’s friendship is tied to it.

Chapter 11 - R.I.P Ion (end of 2026 era, end of first book)

Kyle and Ion walked around the cemetery, but they saw 3 silhouettes. “Who are those?”, Kyle said. “I dont know”, Ion said. The 3 adults have arrived, and they look mad. “So if you excuse me, im gonna hide behind that stone.”, said Kyle. he went behind the grave in steam, but William, Nulsan, and Sill were all ready to crush it. Kyle saw them get ready to step on Ion. “ION! NO WAI-” Kyle screamed, but Ion was crushed with a flash of a explosion, the only sign of her even existing was the hoodie she wore. The 3 adults left.

Chapter 12 - The Merging. (post-book chapter)

Kyle was super sad and couldnt handle the loss of Ion, so it decided to mix with it. He made the left side of his eye hers. His arm, hers. And did every other. He was now her, but wouldnt that account for Tr-

HEY! HEY! DONT MENTION THAT!

Ok.

DONT!

Ok.

Dont.

Ok.
